٧.

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been submitted to the Court. I conclude that the following facts are established: (Check one or both, as applicable.) by clear and convincing evidence the defendant is a danger to the community and require the detention of the defendence pending trial in this case. by a preponderance of the evidence the defendant is a serious flight risk and require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case. PART I - FINDINGS OF FACT that the following facts are established: (Check one or both, as applicable.) by clear and convincing evidence the defendant is a danger to the community and require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case. by a preponderance of the evidence the defendant is a serious flight risk and require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case. PART I - FINDINGS OF FACT (1) 18 U.S.C. §3142 (e)(2)(A): The defendant has been convicted of a (federal offense)(state or local offense the would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed) that is a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4). an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death. an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offendescribed in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. any felony that involves a minor victim or that involves the possession or use of a firearm or destruct device (as those terms are defined in section 921), or any other dangerous weapon, or involves a fa to register under 18 U.S.C. § 22250. 18 U.S.C. §3142(e)(2)(B): The offense described in finding 1 was committed while the defendant was on rel pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. 31 18 U.S.C. §3142(e)(2)(C): A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction)(release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1. 42 Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of condition will reasonably assure the safety of (an)other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings 19 18 U.S.C. § 924(c), 956(a), or 2332b. under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c), 956(a), or 2332b. an offense involving a minor victim under section an		Jose .	 Alonso	Ramirez-Pasos	Case Number:	13-141M-004

The Court incorporates by reference the findings of the Pretrial Services Agency which were reviewed by the Court at the time of the hearing in this matter.

PART III -- DIRECTIONS REGARDING DETENTION

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his/her designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

PART IV -- APPEALS AND THIRD PARTY RELEASE

IT IS ORDERED that should an appeal of this detention order be filed with the District Court, it is counsel's responsibility to deliver a copy of the motion for review/reconsideration to Pretrial Services at least one day prior to the hearing set before the District Court. Pursuant to Rule 59(a), FED.R.CRIM.P., effective December 1, 2009, Defendant shall have fourteen (14) days from the date of service of a copy of this order or after the oral order is stated on the record within which to file specific written objections with the district court. Failure to timely file objections in accordance with Rule 59(a) may waive the right to review. 59(a), FED.R.CRIM.P.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if a release to a third party is to be considered, it is counsel's responsibility to notify Pretrial Services sufficiently in advance of the hearing before the District Court to allow Pretrial Services an opportunity to interview and investigate the potential third party custodian.

DATED this 29th day of March, 2013.
